EMILY DAVIS ADAMS

SOMEWHERE BETWEEN

JANUARY 7 - FEBRUARY 19, 2017

RECEPTION FOR THE ARTIST: Saturday, January 7, 4 - 7 p.m.

Los Angeles, CA (December 12, 2016)—CB1 Gallery is pleased to present an exhibition of new paintings by Emily Davis Adams, *Somewhere Between. In a departure from her 2015 CB1 exhibition, which featured a single large-scale painting, the current show consists of a series of small works that extend her exploration of surfaces marked by human contact. The exhibition will be on view from January 7 through February 19, 2017. An opening reception for the artist will be held on Saturday, January 7, 2017, 4 - 7 p.m.

Emily Davis Adams, No. 150, 2016, oil on canvas over panel, 16" x 20"

These new paintings explore the physical qualities of light as both representational object and abstraction. Adams renders simple still-life constructions made of paper and artificial light in oil on canvas, eschewing a focus on hand or process and emphasizing instead a delicate balance of illusionism and phenomenological experience.

Emily Davis Adams, No. 18, 2016, oil on canvas over panel, 9" x 12"

Adams' works draw from the constructed realities of artists such as Thomas Demand and Hiroshi Sugimoto, the perceptual considerations of the Light and Space artists, as well as the paintings of the Dutch Golden Age and 19th century American Luminists.

Adams majored in studio art at UCLA's School of Art and Architecture, received a BS in environmental policy from UC Berkeley, and an MFA from the New York Academy of Art. Her work has been included in exhibitions in New York, Ontario, Los Angeles, and the San Francisco Bay Area. This is her third solo exhibition with CB1 Gallery. Adams currently lives and works in Brooklyn, New York.

Gallery hours are Tuesday - Saturday, 10 a.m. - 6:00 p.m. and Sunday, noon - 4 p.m.
